MEN'S LEAGUE.

"Off with the old and on with the new."

Having passed the days ending the old and beginning the new year, we, of the League, are now deep in the work of the new year.

With renewed zeal and energy we are carrying out new plans and carrying on the old ones.

Of late we have been pleased to note a decided increase in attendance of the meeting after Sunday night church service, which is due to the efficient work of the league Welcome Committee, which has for its object to make strangers feel at home at our church services by shaking hands with them and welcoming them. The good work of this committee is already manifested by the cordial feeling of good fellowship which pervades our church, many having spoken appreciatively of this very thing.

So far as the League has gone with raising of money for the removal of debt on the church lot, success has met our efforts, though as yet not much has been done to this end, owing to the fact of other matters coming up to involve our attention toward their immediate execution.

The league has a fine field of endeavor and its power for good in our community is great, the objects for doing good being so many.

To meet the many spiritual needs of our community our church needs a parish house, in which there should be a reading room, a gymnasium, etc. This would bring more into our sphere of influence, thus extending much further our power of usefulness.

This we hope to have sometime in the future and we hope it will be the near future.

Plans to this end are made with able men behind them to push them to successful completion.

The Octette and Welcome Committees of the League are doing much toward making greater the attendance and interest in our after meeting, after Sunday evening church service, the attendance and interest having almost doubled since their use for this purpose. The Octette adds wonderfully to the music of the after meeting by putting more life into singing and adding an interesting feature to the meeting.

Tuesday, February the fifth the League gives an entertainment with what is said to be the finest program we have yet had. Report of same will be contained in next issue of Church Life.

Each man must do his part and put his shoulder to the wheel to make the League go, and this is being done, for never before has so much enthusiastic interest been taken in League work and every plan is carried out with vim and push.

Let us keep it up. Tell your friends to come to the League social evenings. Hand any names of friends to whom you wish notice of Social evenings sent to the secretary (Frank W. Gale) and notice will be sent them regularly.

Also come yourself and invite your friends to come with you to Men's Bible class, taught by our pastor, Dr. de Blois, each Sunday morning after service, at 12:15.

All men are welcome.

FRANK W. GALE,
Department Editor, Men's League.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

MRS. L. H. SMITH, DEP'T EDITOR.

The weather and illness has not been favorable to large attendances, but the same zeal and enthusiasm was characteristic of those present. Our faithful president, Mrs. McCullough has been greatly missed during her absence, but our vice-president, Mrs. Marshall has presided—with her usual grace and charm. The society voted to give $150 to the Missionary Society, and also $450 to the Men's League to help liquidate the mortgage on lot adjoining the church. Miss Chandler gave an interesting report of the Industrial School at Raymond Mission which has an enrollment of 105 pupils with an average attendance of 78.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

On the evening of January 22, a social was given for the teachers and parents of the Sunday school scholars. There was a program of recitations and music and Mr. Colver gave an interesting account of the work of the Chicago Boy's Club among the boys who live in our down town district.

The first regular monthly teachers' meeting was held at 7:00 o'clock, Wednesday evening before Covenant meeting. It was well attended, but the superintendent hopes to see a still larger number of teachers there next month.

On Decision Day, in the Intermediate Department, about thirty scholars signified their desire to become Christians. Nine were baptized on Sunday morning February 3.

The teachers of the Primary department have organized a normal class for the study of the lesson, which Mrs. Ware, has kindly consented to teach. It meets every Sunday morning after church service.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

ROBERT C. LELAND, DEP'T EDITOR.

Monday evening, January 7, the Mission Study class of our society met for the first time with an attendance of twelve. This attendance has been maintained at our weekly meetings, while the spirit and interest by the members in the work taken up is noteworthy. The success of the undertaking makes it probable that when the course is completed some other Mission Study or Christian Culture course will be followed regularly throughout the year, though possibly not meeting on Monday evenings.

January 25th, Mr. S. T. Foster led our monthly missionary meeting; he told us of S. America, the neglected field, particularly Bolivia, and related his own experiences in connection with the subject. Our next meeting will be February 22. The subject will be, "Immigration—Work by the Baptists at Ellis Island."

The finance committee is planning an entertainment to be given by the Endeavorers some time this spring. Though our ordinances have recently found good footing, funds available from proceeds of an entertainment would meet a present need in proper furtherance of the work in the society.

While we rejoice in the acquisition of several young men last month, we regret the resignation of our treasurer, Mr. Ernest Hartung, who on account of duties in various other church organizations, felt compelled to withdraw from his office.

The Chicago Union Rally held January 8, at the Second Presbyterian Church, was attended so enthusiastically that an overflow meeting was held at a nearby church. Dr. Francis E. Clark gave a brief but stirring address on Christian Endeavor—Past, Present, and Future. Watch for the announcement of a South Division Rally in March.

THE YOUNG LADIES' MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

EDITH G. GALE, DEP'T EDITOR.

On Thursday afternoon January 10, the society met at the home of the Misses Marshall, 3426 Vernon avenue. There were about fourteen girls present. Miss Van Fleet, Mrs. Clifford Williams and Mrs. Marshall talked over the plans with the girls for the mission union supper, which was held on Tuesday evening, January 15, at our church.

Much credit is due to these three ladies for the success of this supper. Supper was served at 6:30 p. m. to about one hundred and seventy-five guests. The Young Ladies' Missionary Society cleared about ten dollars from the supper, for which they are very grateful to the ladies.

The society met at Miss Leila Ahrens, 3218 Vernon avenue, on Thursday afternoon, January 31st. Part of the afternoon was spent listening to a musical program. Miss Florence Huskey had to give up the missionary study class, which was studying "The Christian Conquest of India." As yet we have not secured another teacher.

The society meets at the home of the Misses

Googins, 3247 South Park avenue, on Thursday, February 14, at 2:30 p. m.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION.

This organization continues to prosper and its meetings are interesting and profitable to the boys and girls who come. A pleasant social time was had Saturday afternoon, January 12, when about twenty of the boys and girls gathered at the church and enjoyed games and refreshments. At the annual meeting held at the same time, the following officers and chairmen of committees were elected:

President—Joseph Hurlbut.
Vice-president—Willard Groom.
Secretary—Sidney Hurlbut.
Treasurer—Florence Dicks.

Chairmen of Committees—
Missionary—Garnett Hall.
Devotional—Helen Warner.
Ushers—Stephen de Blois.
Social—Mabel Lightly.
Membership—Leon Howarth.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Several of the members of this department have not yet sent in their reports for the last quarter of 1906. If they will attend to this at the earliest possible moment, it will greatly oblige the superintendent, Mr. Kennan, 2978 So. Park avenue.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Roy has been ill with the gripe.

Mrs. Ahrens is out of the city in hopes that a change of scene may prove restful and beneficial.

Mrs. A. E. Thomas has been ill with the grip for ten days but is now on the way to recovery.

Mrs. W. E. Fowler suffered a painful accident January 28, breaking two ankle bones. She will be a shut-in for several weeks.

Mrs. McCullough has returned from a delightful month in the south and was again in the president's chair at Benevolent Society February 1.

Mrs. Stanley Pickett had the misfortune to fall upon a slippery pavement during the last week in January and will be forced to remain in the house for some time with a sprain.

The contagious disease which is rampant seems to have avoided our locality to a large extent and there are but few cases among our Sunday school pupils. Ruth Edling has been the victim of diphtheria but has entirely recovered. Frances Milhuff has had to remain at home on account of whooping cough. There are two or three cases of scarlet fever in Sunday school families but none seem to be seriously ill and all seem to be taking every precaution that is possible to prevent the spread of the disease.

RAYMOND CHAPEL NOTES.

W. H. Craig, superintendent of Sunday school, and Arthur R. Rhenisch, assistant superintendent, have not only retired from office, but are unable longer to be identified with the work at Raymond. Their faithfulness and self-sacrifice for the good of the mission bespeaks their deep interest in the work.

The new superintendent, Dr. Frank H. Kelly, took charge of the Sunday school January 27, 1907. His opening address indicated the earnestness with which he is undertaking the work. He is already planning for increased numbers and efficiency of the school, and all feel that he is the right man for the place.

Brother Embree's farewell evening services Sunday January 27 and Tuesday January 29, 1907 showed how hard it was to break the ties of friendship which closely bound him to Raymond Chapel.

After the close of the Tuesday evening service, the members of the chapel showed their esteem by presenting brother Embree with a handsome, gold watch case, and, during the speech making a good many tear stained eyes were visible.

All wish for him God's blessing in his new work at Marengo, Ill.

We are glad to have our Bible class teacher, W. R. Raymond and our Sunday school teacher, Miss Beck, with us again, both of whom have been suffering with the grip.

Craig and assistant superintendent Arthur R.
Rhenisch have deemed it necessary to retire from their positions at Raymond Chapel, and

Whereas, they have served the interests of therefore, be it

Resolved, first, that we, as officers and teach-

CHICAGO BAPTIST NEWS.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Calvary—Rev. David T. Magill, of Milford, Mass., has been called as pastor, and it is understood that he will begin his work in Chicago this month. This church has a large and aggressive Sunday school, and the field offers opportunity to do a great work. We welcome the new pastor to his labors here.

Austin Ave. Church—On January 9 the church unanimously called Rev. Albert F. Bassford, formerly of Providence, R. I., to the pastorate made vacant by Rev. I. T. Geistweit's removal. Mr. Bassford has been the regular supply for the past two months, and has already entered upon his duties as pastor, having the enthusiastic support of the entire membership. The ministerial brotherhood of Chicago welcomes him to a place in the work here.

Bethany—Pastor Blodgett reports special meetings which began January 6 under the leadership of Evangelist H. S. Morrill, of Aurora. Great crowds have attended the meetings. On Friday evening many people were turned away, so great was the crowd. During the first week, including Sunday night, fifteen persons were received for baptism. Six were baptized Sunday night and we are expecting to baptize every night. The harvest seems just ready, and Evangelist Morrill is a leader. There is a fine spirit of unity and a great desire for soul-saving in the church.

La Salle Ave.—During the year past there were 105 new members received, sixty-three of the number by baptism, making the present membership 324. The results of the year in baptisms have been the largest in the history of any single year of the church. Pastor M. W. Buck has been on the field some three months over two years and has seen the weekly offerings increase from $40 per week to $90. The Sunday school has also increased from an average attendance two years ago of about 100 to 277 and from an average collection of $2.46 per Sunday to $8.81.

Waukegan—Rev. John G. Briggs, who has been pastor here for seven years and has done an excellent work, has been called to succeed Rev. E. S. Stucker, at Owatonna, Minn.

Garfield Park—Under the leadership of its new pastor, Rev. William J. Sly, this church is enjoying a gracious, refreshing and substantial advance. Seventy-two new members have been received up to date, thirty-eight of these by baptism. The Pastor, believing in the thorough training of young converts, is anxious to furnish ample opportunity for this in various ways in classes on Sunday afternoons and Monday evenings as well as at the Wednesday evening prayer-meeting. Rev. J. W. Weddell of Morgan Park spent two weeks assisting the Pastor in special services which were blessed to the church. The Sunday school has as its faithful and progressive Superintendent Bro. W. H. Fort, and the President of the B. Y. P. U. is Bro. Harry Varnell. The President of the West Side District, Mr. H. W. Ralph, his wife and Mr. F. W. Van Keuren, were present at the Young People's meeting January 27. All are delighted with the progress of the Garfield Park Church in every way and praise God for His Goodness.

Information concerning a violincello and clarinet which can be secured for use in a Sunday school orchestra is desired. Please address Harry A. Varnell, 481 S. 42d Court.

Morgan Park—A very interesting program of "Meetings to Help Heavenward" has been arranged for the Wednesday evening meeting. A devotional study of Philippians will be taken up with brief expositions by members of the church. Once a month a meeting will be devoted to lessons from noble lives with a summary of biography by one speaker and a review of the religious life by a second. The first meeting in the month, after January, will be the missionary meeting of the whole church and congregation under the charge of different committees. It is hoped that this varied program will make its appeal to many who have not been attending the Wednesday evening meeting and turn many to a prayerful and practical meditation on the rich letter to the Philippians as well as increase our information and deepen our sense of obligation concerning Christ's conquest of the world. The meeting begins at 7:47 o'clock and lasts but one hour to leave time for the exposition of the Sunday school lesson by the pastor.

Covenant—Dr. C. B. Allen, Jr., received a hearty and unanimous call on December 30 to the pastorate and accepts the call. Dr. Allen has held but three pastorates, all of which have been marked by excellent growth. He served for twelve years as pastor at Helena, Mont., then was pastor of the Beth Eden church, afterward of the united Beth Eden and First church of Omaha, Neb., and for five and one-half years has been pastor at Canton, Ohio. He comes to an important field and with every assurance of a large, successful ministry.

Humboldt Park—The clerk reports a splendid year's work, and bright prospects. The pastor was given a Christmas present of $50.00. At the January communion the hand of fellowship was given to eleven new members. Others are coming.

Washington Park—Pastor Linden gave the hand of fellowship to ten new members on January 6.

Evanston—The January Communion was perhaps the most largely attended in the history of the church. Prof. Burton of the Divinity school, addressed two of the Bible classes of the Sunday school upon the value of the study of the Life of Christ. It was a most inspiring address, admirably fitted to the beginning by these classes of a year's study of "The Constructive Life of Christ," with the volume prepared by Profs. Burton and Matthews, as text book.

Harvey—Pastor Dinsmore gave the hand of fellowship to fourteen new members at the January Communion.

Lexington Ave.—Thirteen new members received the hand of fellowship on January 6, two of whom were recently baptized.

Normal Park—The new building is up to the windows of the auditorium. The attendance at the prayer-meeting during the last three Wednesdays of January was 90, 75 and 99. The annual meeting showed a surplus of over $100 in the treasury. More money was raised for current expenses and benevolences than any other year of the church's history.

Humboldt Park—We are pleased to report a splendid year's work, and bright prospects for the future.

The finances of the church are in a better condition than they have been in years, and every department shows signs of new life and activity. God is manifesting His favor through these blessings, and deepening our spiritual life.

The church, to show their appreciation of Pastor Warren H. MacLeod, whose faithfulness and devotion has led to this happy condition, presented him at Christmas with a fifty dollar gold certificate.

First Church—Dr. De Blois recently had the joy of baptizing his eldest son, Stephen George. The annual meeting showed all departments of the work in a most gratifying condition. The contributions for the local work show an increase of $1,000 over the previous year. Upwards of twenty have recently been baptized and a number of others also welcomed into fellowship.

Pilgrim Temple—Twelve have been received during the past few months, three by baptism. Others are awaiting the ordinance. The annual meeting showed the best financial and benevolent condition for several years.

Oak Park—The ordinance of baptism has been administered during the past month. The annual report shows the benevolences to be $620 above the previous year. The church enters upon the new year's work entirely free from indebtedness.

Hyde Park—There were two baptisms on January 27, and others are waiting. The prayer meetings have been increasing in attendance and interest.

Second Church—The new movement has been started auspiciously, and the members of the two churches are mingling and working together congenially. Pastor Straton baptized four on January 27.

THE GOSPEL FOR THE ITALIANS OF CHICAGO.

For several years there has been a growing conviction in the minds of the members of our City Mission Board, that we ought to join the other denominations in an effort to give the Gospel to the many thousands of Italians in our city, and especially in view of the fact that the number is steadily increasing. The chief difficulty has been that we were not able to find a man who was competent to be a leader in the effort. While the funds at the disposal of the Board are very small in amount as compared with what they ought to be, nevertheless the importance of this work has been deemed so great, that during the last three years there has ever been a readiness to make an appropriation for its conduct, if the man could be obtained who gave evidence of fitness for leadership.

We believe such a man has been found in the person of Luigi Pampana, who is a member of a Baptist church in Troy, N. Y., but who is at the present time pursuing studies at the Moody Bible Institute. As soon as we learned of his presence, through information furnished by Dr. Chivers, we at once took steps to secure his services. Personally, he was willing to assume the leadership of a mission at once, but the two ladies who are assuming the necessary expenses connected with his work of preparation for greater usefulness, objected to his doing so on the ground that they believed he could accomplish more in the future by giving his chief attention to study in the Institute. But this did not deter him from doing personal work among his countrymen. He not only accepted opportunities as they presented themselves, but was continually seeking for them. He soon learned that there were about twenty members of a Presbyterian church, who had been studying their Bibles with special reference to the subject of baptism. As a result of this study they had gone down to the lake and administered the ordinance to each other. Very naturally he sought their company, and joined with them in the conduct of religious services. But these brethren were all such devoted, and active Christian workers, that they did not feel the need of any special leader, but after holding a meeting for prayer and testimony, they would go out by two's and tell their countrymen the wonderful story of "Jesus and His love." In the meantime Pampana was doing a similar work. It was while thus engaged, that he made the acquaintance of E. de Luca, who was in the employ of the "American Bible Society," and who also, like himself, had been educated for the Roman Catholic priesthood. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, but through his intimacy with Pampana, he began searching the Scriptures to see why there was this difference in their belief, and consequent action. The result was that he came to the conclusion that his friend was right. But while engaged in this work of trying to instruct his brother in Christ, regarding the duty of a Christian, Pampana was also trying to persuade his unsaved countrymen, that they needed to go to the Lord Jesus Christ, as their personal mediator, instead of to the priest of their church. His pleading was not in vain, and on the evening of the 8th of the present month, the superintendent of missions was invited to go to the home of one of these converts and meet several who had been led to accept Christ as their personal Savior. The result was that on the following evening, they came before the deacons of the La Salle Ave. Baptist church, and at the prayer meeting which followed, were received as candidates for baptism, and last Sunday evening, eight of them followed their Lord in that ordinance. In the morning of the same day at 10:30 they held a service at 324 S. Clark street, where they will probably continue to hold for the present. We are greatly rejoiced at this auspicious opening of a work that we have for a long time been desirous of undertaking.

R. E. MANNING,

Superintendent of City Missions, Chicago.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S MISSION UNION.

The Union met at the First Baptist church, Tuesday, January 15, and had a most interesting and instructive session. A delightful supper was served by the young women of that church, at 6:30 p. m., for ten cents.

At 7:30 we adjourned to the Sunday school room, which was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers. An inspiring song and devotional service was held, our "Mother Union" having charge.

There were two minute reports from the Unions of Evanston, Humboldt Park and Immanuel churches.

Miss Johanna P. Moore spoke very interestingly of her labors among the colored people of the south. She related several amusing incidents of her work.

Miss Nell Reed took us, for a little while, among the miners in West Virginia, and showed us the great need of workers and churches.

With Mrs. Grow we visited the missionaries in their homes in Japan. We saw how they lived, worked, spent their vacations, and conducted their schools.

Four new Unions joined our Union, making thirty-six in all. We shall be pleased to have others join us in this great work. Any desiring to do so may, upon proper application. Address all such to Miss Annie Beach, 57 Bryant avenue, Chicago.

M. ELIZABETH BUCK,
Corresponding Secretary.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSION NOTES.

We trust our sisters are reading of the wonderful gatherings of souls on our various mission fields, and of the transformed lives of which our missionaries tell us. Nearly every letter tells of the joy in seeing many from the schools baptized, and of the deep, true spirit evident in their meetings.

We urge, just now, the very interesting and informing publications of our society of the west, the Helping Hand, a monthly magazine for twenty-five cents a year, and The Bulletin, published quarterly for fifteen cents a year, confined entirely to our own work.

We present, also, the call to greater consecration of all that we are, and of our means that the large amount required to meet the needs of the year may be on hand by March 31. All will rejoice that the society is trying to provide suitable homes for our workers, buildings for our schools that call so loudly to us, in addition to carrying on the work begun which always calls for advancement in order that we may not lose that already attained. Our secretaries are sending out letters to all state workers, asking for enlarged gifts, and they also make special appeal to the women of our Chicago churches for an offering that shall mean sacrifice, that this work may not suffer for lack of our support. Merely to meet the apportionment will not suffice, while an additional amount from each of our more than sixty-five churches would mean much. Our treasurer says this will call for greater sacrifice, earnest, persistent praying and some of the hardest work we ever did.

WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSION UNION.

The January meeting of the Union was held with the Belden Avenue church and marked a very helpful and interesting occasion.

The morning, as well as afternoon, was given to addresses. Miss Perrine of the Society of the West gave an account of her trip to Arizona and Oklahoma and told us of the great work the women of this section are doing, and says they fulfilled the injunction, "As ye have opportunity." Mrs. Donnelly told of a recent trip to Ellis Island, where she saw one boat land bearing over 2,000 Hungarians and another with nearly 1,000 Scandinavians; saw the immigrants pass the various officials, and many incidents of constant occurrence, and the opportunities afforded the missionaries for helpful service, noting many improvements in the management over former years.

Miss Harris of the Women's Home Mission Society presented the pressing need of immediate attention to the building fund of the Training School, that ground may be broken in February. Only about one-half of the $25,000 asked of Chicago association has been pledged. The annual reception at the Training School will occur February 12, and will follow the plan in vogue for many years.

A message from Miss Sorague was received through Mrs. Haigh, and while failing, bears on her mind and heart the work she loved. Miss Regan, who soon goes to Glasgow, Scotland, to labor among the Jews, spoke with much feeling of the importance of this work.

Dr. John Earl, pastor of Belden Avenue church, gave a very stirring, helpful address on the topic, "A Heavenly Vision," which shall reveal the person to himself, reveal the Saviour, and reveal the work to be done.

Special music was provided, the attendance especially good, and the meeting altogether up to the high standard of excellence.

SOME PARAGRAPHS FROM AN ADDRESS BY DEAN ERI B. HULBERT.

Four convictions have successively found place in the minds, hearts and consciences of the members of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society.

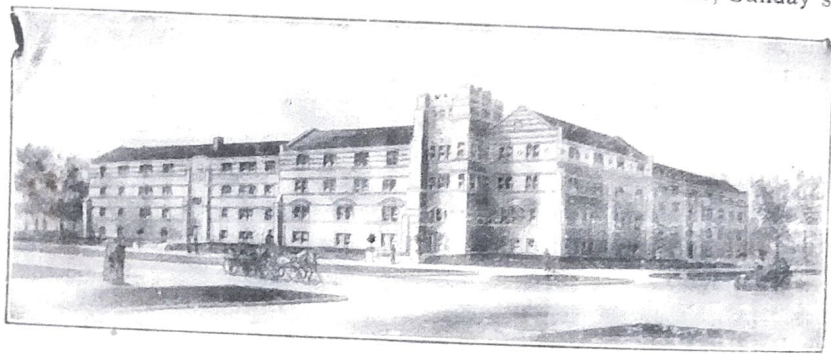

I. Thirty years ago or thereabouts it became apparent to a few elect spirits that there was a primary and pressing need for which the existing denominational missionary organizations were not making provision; a need which in the very nature of things only women could supply; a need centering in the homes of the benighted and needy peoples in behalf of whom missionary effort was being made; a need pertaining to the wives and mothers in these homes, and through them to their children and husbands and neighbors.

The more clearly were the vastness and urg-

Missionary Training School. The school had its inception in a great conviction.

We all know perfectly well that in all the society was perfectly right. It was simply following in the way of enlightened modern intelligence. All the world over, in every sphere of human activity, it is universally recognized that preparedness is indispensably necessary. Everywhere the world moves on under the control and guidance of trained workers—in the industrial and commercial world, in the cultural and educational world, in the agriculture, art, literature and philosophy. And the same great necessity is coming to be recognized and felt in the charitable and religious world. More and more are we seeing that the heads of our prisons, asylums and hospitals, and the secretaries of our associations, whether for young men or young women, must needs be carefully trained for their callings. The wisest among us are likewise seeing that not only our home preachers and foreign missionaries, but also our church clerks, Sunday school teachers, ency of this need perceived by our Baptist women, the more profoundly were their hearts moved in sympathy and the more imperiously did conscience call for practical and immediate action. It was this conviction of this appalling need, and of the direct and responsible relation of Christian women to it, out of which grew the women's Baptist Home Mission Society. The society had its inception in a great conviction.

THE PROPOSED NEW HOME OF THE BAPTIST MISSIONARY TRAINING SCHOOL, VERNON AVE. AND THIRTIETH ST., CHICAGO.

II. Forthwith missionaries were selected and commissioned, and work began. Three or four years later a second conviction was borne in upon mind, heart and conscience. Officers of the society visiting the fields in which their missionaries were operating made a painful discovery. * * * They found that appointment to this service did not necessarily mean fitness for it, that a commission was not a sure passport to success, and that zeal could not compensate for lack of knowledge, that sympathy might easily be injuriously bestowed, that even consecration needed to be disciplined and guided, that piety itself was no certain safeguard against serious mistakes and failures.

It was this conviction of the imperative need of preparation out of which grew the Baptist superintendents and choristers require a fitting for their vocations by courses of instruction specially suited to their requirements. So when this society resolved to train its workers, it was simply following a universal law—a law which approves itself to the enlightened judgment of the age in which we live. The conviction out of which grew the school was enlightened and rational and sane.

III. I name a third conviction which the history of the society has created and confirmed, a conviction which inspires and energizes these women and keeps them calm and hopeful—the conviction that upon their endeavors is stamped the seal of divine approval. God is on their side; he looks down upon their work with complacency; what they are doing pleases him.

The society has the conviction that it enjoys the divine favor, a conviction which is based on abundant proofs—for one thing, on the wonderful blessings which have rested on the missionaries on the field, and, for another thing, on the remarkable progress of the Training School as seen in its increased enrollment, its extended curriculum, its array of instructors, its growth in material equipment.

IV. A fourth conviction, as strong as any thus far named, is that God calls for a forward movement. The expanding work imperatively demands a corresponding expansion in existing facilities and appointments. Twice and again the school has outgrown its accommodations. Once contracted rented quarters were large enough; the school outgrew them. Once the Indiana avenue premises in their original unaltered form were large enough; the school outgrew them. Once these premises, overhauled and remodeled, were large enough; the school outgrew them. Now everything from cellar to attic is wholly inadequate and unsuited to existing needs. No longer is the kitchen big enough, nor the dining-hall, nor the chapel, nor the parlor. The places for recitation and the offices for administration are too few and small, as are likewise the girls' study and sleeping-rooms. Into a room big enough for one, two are crowded; and big enough for two, three or more are crowded; and all available space is over-filled beyond the limits of comfort, privacy and health. And still there is not room enough, and for the overflow quarters outside the home are rented, and when these are filled nothing remains but to turn the rest away. So evident is it that God himself has created the necessity for more ample accommodations.

The advancing and expanding movement to which the society is summoned by all events and conditions incident to its work is ultimately dependent on the provisions that can be made for the better housing and equipment of the Training School. Darkened homes through the length and breadth of the land may be needing the light of life, the harvest fields may be ripe for the sickle, the doors of opportunity may be open at every turn, but progress can be made only as consecrated toilers can be found eager for the Master's service. To these toilers tasks so delicate and momentous cannot be intrusted, until they have been duly tried and fitted through a wise and suitable preparatory tuition. This tuition can be most speedily and effectively imparted through a school for missionary training, planned and conducted expressly for the purpose. This training school can do its work only as it has room for those who seek admission, and a material equipment adequate for the necessities of the case.

So then at last everything depends on the school facilities the society is able to furnish. If the missionary work is to lag behind or to stop where it is, the present accommodations can be made to suffice, but if there is to be a forward movement, the present quarters, already overcrowded and outgrown, must be abandoned and other quarters more commodious and suitable must be provided. Then increasing numbers of matriculants will be enrolled, then increasing numbers of qualified graduates will be commissioned, then increasing numbers of waiting fields will be cultivated, then increasing numbers of cheerless homes will be made bright and glad by the Saviour's entrance, then increasing numbers of darkened spirits will be lifted into the light of Christ's face and favor.

If we would follow the beckoning grace and love of God, we must plan to enlarge the field of our operations, and in order to do this, everything hinges on the erection of a new and larger training School building. The call for such a building voices neither vanity nor ambition, but the articulate summons of a gracious Providence. The prompting to arise and build grounds itself in a prime and sheer necessity, a necessity made urgent and imperative by God's very goodness and blessing. The conviction that a new school structure must be erected comes directly from divine suggestion and encouragement. It is the heavenly challenge to our hesitating faith. Well may confidence dare to venture, when it is inspired by Him who is waiting to be gracious.

The Women's Baptist Home Mission Society is entering a critical period in its history. Its very prosperity has precipitated almost a crisis in its affairs. If it can carry its building project to an early and successful issue, a future will be assured more stable and fruitful than the past. If its hopes are realized its friends must rally to its support. Herein Christ is putting the fidelity and consecration of his disciples to the test. Their efforts and offerings will be the convincing proof of their loyalty to Him. Surely every church bearing His name and every home hallowed by His presence, and every woman longing to uplift her sister, ought to covet the privilege of aiding a cause that has for its object the glory of Christ in the redemption of men. Surely the constituency to which this society can legitimately appeal is intelligent and generous enough to provide the moral support and material resources on which, under Christ, the society must depend.

CHURCH CONSOLIDATION IN CHICAGO.

The constant removal of families and members from, and the rapid encroachment of business around our churches located near the business center of Chicago cause it to be more and more difficult to support properly and carry on successfully the work of the home family church situated in the business center. This condition prevailing has resulted in the merging of the Centennial Church with the Second Church and the removal of the latter to the present location of the Centennial, corner Jackson boulevard and Lincoln street. This move leaves the center of Chicago practically without regular preaching services in our denomination.

It has frequently been said that our Baptist denomination for the west should have a central headquarters, but the large cost of the necessary land and buildings in the "loop district" makes such an undertaking practically impossible. The removal of the Second Church from the corner of Morgan and Monroe streets at this time affords the opportunity. The business center of Chicago is rapidly being enlarged and extended south, north and west until the "loop district" no longer contains all the important central business industries.

The great railway depots of the Chicago & North-Western, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Chicago & Alton and Pennsylvania systems soon will occupy practically all of the territory from the river to Clinton street, and from Twelfth street to Kinzie street. This important railway center, together with the settlement now assured of the street railway interests, giving patrons full transfers throughout Chicago, and the widening of Halsted street, will all tend to make the business center occupy as large a territory as from the lake on the east to Ashland boulevard on the west, and from Twenty-second street on the south to Division street on the north.

What would be more suitable or fitting than at this time to grasp the splendid opportunity to organize a Baptist Central Union, inviting all Baptist churches throughout Chicago to become interested and make annual provision for its maintenance, to purchase the old Second Church property, together with enough adjoining property for improvement to house comfortably the headquarters for the west of the Foreign and Home Mission Societies, Educational and Publication Societies, Young People's Societies, State and City Mission Societies, The Standard and all Baptist work of every kind?

The auditorium is suited for large preaching services every Sunday morning and evening and for all large gatherings of the denomination of every kind. The first floor is well suited for social gatherings, Sunday school work, industrial settlement and rescue work every day and night in the year.

Let the Christian work so faithfully done by the grand old Second Church of Chicago, under the leadership of Edgar Goodspeed, Thomas Goodspeed, Galusha Anderson, John Peddie, William Lawrence and "Aunt Lizzie" Aiken, with the aid of an army of faithful helpers, be at once enlarged and perpetuated by the united and earnest effort of all Baptists and all Baptist churches in Chicago, in the name of the Baptist Central Union, and under the leadership of a progressive, magnetic and sympathetic leader, on the corner of Monroe and Morgan streets, for the saving and uplifting Christian service to the many thousands of young men and women living in the boarding houses throughout the central part of our great city.

A. M. SEARLES.

ANNIVERSARY OF DR. HARPER'S DEATH.

The first anniversary memorial service to Dr. W. R. Harper was held in Mandel Hall, of University of Chicago, on January 10. The hall was crowded with members of the university and their friends and the services were simple but impressive, consisting of a scripture lesson by Prof. E. D. Burton, prayer by Dr. C. R. Henderson, and the reading of selections from Dr. Harper's writings by Prof. A. W. Small. Dr. A. K. Parker presented resolutions in memory of Dr. Harper from the Institute of Sacred Literature. The selections of music used were those which were favorites of Dr. Harper. Acting President Harry Pratt Judson spoke briefly of the high heritage which Dr. Harper had left the denomination and the Christian world.

A most appropriate tribute to Dr. Harper's spirit originally presented to the Illinois Baptist Convention by Dean Hulbert, was printed in The Standard of January 19.

A GENEROUS GIFT, AS USUAL.

The University of Chicago received a New Year's greeting from Mr. John D. Rockefeller in the form of a gift for endowment consisting of securities of the market value of $2,700,000. He also makes additional gifts for making good the annual deficits of the university proper of the School of Education, and of the Law School. He further makes provision for an annual increase in the expenditures of the university amounting to $40,000. This will enable the trustees to make much needed increase in salaries of instructors. Mr. Rockefeller provides for these purposes and for some additional needs $217,000. Among the special provisions of this great donation for special needs are the following: For greenhouses for the department of botany, $2,500; for special equipment in various departments, $5,000; for the Alice Freeman Palmer chimes, $5,000. These chimes are to be placed in the tower of the commons group, in memory of Alice Freeman Palmer, who was the first dean of women in the university. Mrs. Palmer's friends have raised $5,000 for these chimes, and this contribution will complete the sum necessary for installing them. For the improvement of the campus, Mr. Rockefeller gives $15,000. For additional cost of drinking water system, $21,610. The founder has already put into the hands of the university $10,000 for installing a system that would furnish pure drinking water to the students. It having been found that the system proposed was not the best, this additional sum has been given to assure absolutely pure drinking water. The cost of this improvement will be $31,610. This new gift of nearly, or quite, $3,000,000 is the largest unconditional donation ever received from the founder of the university. Mr. Rockefeller's gifts to the university, including this present one, amount at this date to more than $21,000,000.

CHICAGO BAPTIST HOSPITAL.

3410 RHODES AVENUE.

The much needed improvements have been going forward in the hospital for the past few months; putting down cement floors in the basement; adding new rooms and wards; building an addition for laundry and rooms for cold-storage; installing new machinery and better equipment, and placing the plant in good repair.

Rooms and halls are being painted and decorated. The work has been more extensive than it appears, and has cost $10,500.

The repairs have somewhat interfered with the number of patients in the hospital, so that income was reduced, while expenses were increased. Several thousand dollars have recently been received from the H. P. Taylor estate and the appeal is now made to friends of the hospital to aid in these improvements.

The Ladies' Aid Society—Mrs. C. R. Williams, president—the connecting link between the hospital and the churches—meet regularly at the hospital, provide supplies, delicacies and furnishings; take charge of the religious work.

among patients and nurses; have a Woman's Exchange for the sale of useful and fancy articles, and are making special effort at this time to fix up and maintain free beds in the children's ward. The women are doing a grand work in the hospital, caring for both the bodies and souls of suffering people.

The Training School for Nurses has a high standard under Miss Josephine Rozan; about 35 pupil nurses; a good curriculum and an excellent course of instruction. Women between the ages of 21 and 35 years, of fair education and good health and character, will be received as nurses, in the order of their applications. A few nurses can now be received.

Patients may be received at the hospital at any time, and the superintendent, Mr. Joseph Purvis, is untiring in his efforts to minister to the welfare of those who come under his charge. President F. M. Buch and Mr. S. J. Sherer have given much attention to these hospital improvements, done by the Wells Bros., contractors. JAMES P. THOMS, Secretary.

HUDELSON HOME NOTES.

Recently the superintendent wrote the matron to learn whether she could receive three brothers who needed our aid. The reply came promptly, "We will be glad to receive the boys," and "can take the three girls, too. Our family does not seem very large to us now." When it is known that these two girls already had fifteen children, their courage and good will can be understood. Such consecration ought to beget sympathy and hearty support.

Harold, one of our larger boys, has been laying by money to assist in the erection of our first cottage. Out of his odd pennies and nickels he has already saved a fund of over a dollar. Recently the superintendent wrote the children that we would begin the new building next spring. Soon afterward the matron wrote: "Harold just had me read your letter to him. He is now standing on his head, all excitement about the new Home."

Recently two sisters and a brother were taken to the Home. They came from a great city where they had known for some months only privation. They arrived late in the evening. After having given them some supper, the matron tucked the little girls into bed. She was rewarded as she left the room by hearing one of the girls say to the other, "How nice and soft the bed is." Father and mother, just think what this would mean if these little ones were your own. I am sure the Master will say to the good people who are making it financially possible for us to do this work, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Some people let the expression, "my brethren," spoil this for them, by reading into the Master's meaning the idea that he only referred to our aiding Christians. Just remember that the Father speaks of himself as being "The Father of the fatherless," and since he is also the Father of Christ, then are these fatherless little ones truly his brethren and sisters.

CENTRAL BAPTIST ORPHANAGE.

MAYWOOD, ILL.

The appeal, sent out to friends, churches and schools, to help in the great undertaking of raising $6,000 to liquidate the mortgage on the Orphanage plant, has met with a cordial response from various quarters; and $1,500 were paid on the mortgage about the middle of January. Funds are still coming in from the churches, and we trust everyone will have some part in this heroic effort.

Let every pastor take the Orphanage upon his heart and prayers, solicit funds from his friends, and send them to Treasurer F. B. Pease, 1213 Tacoma building, Chicago, and thus free this home of debt and enable it to do larger work in caring for helpless children. The home cared for ninety-two children the past year.

This splendid charity appeals to every loving heart; it gives the homeless child another chance in the world, and Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

JAMES P. THOMS, Secretary.

SOCIAL UNION MEETING.

The February meeting of the Chicago Baptist Social Union will be held at the Auditorium, Tuesday evening, February 5. Dr. William A. Quayle, the eloquent pastor of St. James M. E. Church, will speak on "The Menace of American Perpetuity." The new pastors of the La Grange, Covenant, Austin Avenue and Tabernacle churches will be introduced. Music by Mr. Edward T. Clissold. Henry R. Baldwin, President. O. V. Stookey, Secretary.

AN IMPORTANT COMMITTEE.

At the last meeting of the Chicago Association it was voted that a committee be appointed to co-operate with the Baptist young people of the association in furthering the work. This committee has been appointed and consists of Rev. F. L. Anderson, Dr. J. A. Earl and Rev. J. McGee. The advisory council is something new and from its co-operation with our Baptist young people some decided advance and improvement ought to come. The young people are expected to give the initiative to new and advanced movements and with the help of the committee to put their work upon a higher plane.

A NEW NORMAL TRAINING.

In addition to the help given by their Christian culture courses, the young people of Chicago have for some time past felt the need in their work of some provision for the practical training of officers, committeemen and others in best methods. Too little attention has been paid, it is thought, to the efficient administration of the local B. Y. P. U. and the education for that purpose of the many young and inexperienced workers who are called on to assume a responsibility for which they are not ready. To meet this need a co-operative movement of the Chicago B. Y. P. U. with the Chicago Union

C. E. is just announced. The two organizations are appointing a joint board of six members, which is to institute in Chicago what will probably be known as the "Young People's Normal Training Movement." Classes for study of practical methods are to be organized, conferences conducted, courses of study and literature issued and competitive papers sought for publication in denominational organs and otherwise. The following three persons have been chosen to represent the Chicago B. Y. P. U., on this joint board: Rev. A. H. Harnly, pastor First Church, Austin; Rev. W. E. Chalmers, pastor Morgan Park Church, and Mr. W. J. Vollmer, educational superintendent north side district B. Y. P. U. This is a movement which should grow, and its initial success seems in large measure guaranteed in the character of the Baptist appointees. L. B. DORR.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

[This church paper is one in a general co-operative plan which includes nearly all the Chicago churches in the Presbyterian, Congregational, Baptist, Disciple, and United Presbyterian denominations, about one hundred and fifty in number. Each church has its local paper, giving all the local church news. All the churches in each denomination are grouped into denominational news. All the papers contain news of the churches and benevolent institutions of interest to all Christians of the city, regardless of denominational affiliations. Ministers and laymen are invited to report events, both past and prospective, which would be of general interest, to this department. Address, the Home Publishing Co., 135 North Boulevard, Oak Park, Ill. Also churches in the above denominations not yet having the paper are requested to investigate the plan in detail.]

UNION GOSPEL MEETINGS ON THE NORTH SIDE.

JOHN A. EARL.

Union Gospel meetings in which ten churches combine, began on January 14, in the Church of the Covenant, (Presbyterian), on the North Side. The churches engaged in these meetings are the Church of the Covenant, the Fullerton Avenue Presbyterian, Christ Church Presbyterian, Belden Avenue Presbyterian, Diversey and Weslev M. E., Lake View and Lincoln Park Congregational, Grace English Lutheran, and the Belden Avenue Baptist. Dr. A. C. Dickson, Pastor of the Moody Church, has been the Evangelist with E. O. Excell as chorister. Large audiences have listened to the Gospel from night to night. Dr. Dickson combines the gifts of an evangelist with those of a pastor. His preaching is earnest, logical, biblical. It is what one might call doctrinal, in the language of the schools. Sin, Atonement, Heaven, Hell, and the other great themes of Theology have been treated with loyal fidelity to the Word of God. Dr. Dickson is a man of fine spirit. He has no pet methods, no after meeting tricks, no play to the galleries. Everything he does is frank, open, and above board. He appeals to the best in a man and without over-persuasion lets everyone make his own decision.

It is too early yet to speak definitely of results, but so far as the writer can see, the results have been good. Scores of indifferent and worldly church members have been quickened in their Christian lives. They have seen the evil of some of their ways and have had the grace to turn away from certain practices which they had been following. A large number of children and young people have signed cards indicating their desire to follow Christ, while over one hundred adults in one way and another have declared for Christ in the meetings. The meetings will close on Sunday afternoon, February 3.

It might be of interest to say that these meetings are carried on under the direction of the North Central Chicago Ministerial Association. The Association takes in the evangelical ministers of English-speaking churches in the territory between North Avenue and Belmont Avenue; and the lake and the river. It is needless to say that the singing under the leadership of Mr. Excell could not be better. He is a prince of leaders, and the singing has been no small element in the success of the meetings.

UNION MEETING IN AUSTIN.

The Austin churches are in the best union movement of their history. The services are the outgrowth of the Gipsy Smith meetings. Several of the Austin churches had planned for individual meetings; but there came suddenly to be the feeling of a great union movement. Individual arrangements were cancelled and a union meeting of ten churches was hurriedly arranged. The churches co-operating are the First Baptist, the Austin Avenue Baptist, the First Christian, the First Congregational, the Fifty-second Avenue Congregational, the First Presbyterian, the Fifty-second Avenue Presbyterian, the First Methodist, the Forty-ninth Avenue Methodist and the Faith Presbyterian.

The meetings are held in the Methodist Church, Ohio street and Central avenue.

The evangelist leading is Charles Reign Scoville and his three associates. The meetings will continue through February. They promise well.

CHICAGO CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES

REV. FRANK DYER.

January 1907 was the most conspicuous month in the history of Congregationalism in the city. Never before had our churches such an opportunity to do a great thing for the city and never did they rise so nobly as now to do a great task.

I refer to the inauguration and management of the Gypsy Smith Mission. It is with gratitude that we remind ourselves of the brotherly part played by all the denominations in making the meetings a success. This however, does not obscure the fact that the management and responsibility were with us. We shouldered it not for our churches alone but for all the others and for the entire city. We believe that the Mission was the forerunner of a better day in many respects, and especially in interdenominational co-operation. Chicago has not had a Union Evangelistic campaign for a generation. We believe we are not extravagant when we say that it can have one anytime now under right leadership.

The people generally have demonstrated three things:

First—They want it.

Second—They will pay for it.

Third—They will respond to it.

The committee has already made the preliminary investigation about a return trip of Gypsy Smith to Chicago. This cannot be for some time to come but when that time comes it will not be a denominational movement, if our committee has its way, it will be as inclusive as the Evangelical churches of this great metropolis of the West. It was so in spirit and results this time, it will be so in management and responsibility next time if the brethren of the other churches wish it. Meanwhile conversions are being reported all over the city. The Revival fire is spreading. We need not wait for any man to return, God is here!

Ministers and laymen are whetting the sickle. They know the harvest is ripe. Twenty-nine have declared themselves for Christ in two weeks in one church where there have been no extra meetings but where something "extra" has been put into the meetings that are regularly held.

This is what we supremely need; faith in the regular means of grace to accomplish the mission of the Church.

SIDE LIGHTS.

To close with a few side-lights on the meetings. May we continue to believe and we shall yet see greater things in our own Chicago.

The meetings grew. They did not need to be worked up.

The dramatic critic of the Tribune strayed into the Auditorium to hear the beginning of Gypsy's sermon and then go on to report "Lily Langtry." He was still there at the end. On the way out he stopped at the box office and remarked "that man is sincere in every fibre of his being."

The meetings outgrew every building that could be secured for them, First Congregational church, Great Northern theater and the Auditorium.

There was an audience of 25,000 people who would have attended nightly if there had been room.

The great Auditorium stage was fitted up back of the curtain for an inquiry room. Here hundreds came night after night to talk with ministers and Christians and commit themselves on their knees to God.

The meeting Friday noon, January 11, at the Great Northern was probably the greatest religious gathering which any man present ever attended. It was precisely like the accounts of the great meetings of Edwards, Wesley and Finney.

The most conservative judges say, "Gypsy Smith is the greatest preacher who ever spoke in Chicago."

What a leveler the Gospel is. Everybody worked together. All sorts were reached, rich and poor, learned and ignorant.

The three great sights of the meetings: The Auditorium full of men; the streets full of people, bitterly disappointed people; the stage of the Auditorium full of inquirers, penitent tramps in rags kneeling next to penitent society women in silks, and crying out to God for forgiveness.

GIPSY SMITH AND CHICAGO MINISTERS.

The auditorium of the Central Y. M. C. A. was filled with pastors in a union meeting on January 14, to hear Gypsy Smith, who spoke briefly, disclaiming any superiority and assuring his audience that he had made up his mind to be loyal to the pulpit. Two things he emphasized as necessary to the minister: He must be pre-eminently a good man if he is to be a successful soul-winner, and he must have a right message. These points were enforced in apt illustration. He answered a number of questions put at the close of his talk. Here are a few of his striking answers:

"What do you think of applause in religious meetings?" "Applause is the amen of the hands, and some people say amen that way instead of by the lips. If the trees may clap their hands why may not we do so?"

"What is the best preparation for Christian work?" "The best preparation is to prepare yourself. All else is of little value unless the worker himself is right before God."

"What is the best way to do personal work?" "The best way is for you to start. Each person must find the method best adapted to himself and to his surroundings. As to details, each person's method is best for himself."

"In what respect does the religious service in this country differ from that in England?"

"The most noticeable difference is the lack of reverence in this country. People sit bolt upright in prayer, take the back seats in the house, and are indifferent to the claims of the gospel."

"How are we to reach the masses?" By going to them and for them. They will respond if you interest yourself in them. Let the church loose in the community and it will work wonders."

"Are we to preach a literal hell, with fire and brimstone?" "Preach the hell of the Bible, as well as the heaven of the Bible. Don't preach the latter unless you preach the former. The Bible tells us all we know about either of them. Quit speculating about hell; it is your business to keep out of it, and help to keep others out. The man who proposes to put a false bottom in the 'bottomless pit' has undertaken a big contract."

Drink is the greatest and most baneful hypnotist on the earth at present, and that influence is more awful than any plague, more devastating than any war. Looking back from more than middle life, I can hardly remember a case of wreck and ruin that has not been, directly or indirectly, the result of drink. It is a terrible roll-call my memory goes through, of men of good and even brilliant gifts and of bright and glorious opportunities who are dead, or worse than dead, at the hand of the great hypnotist. Against that record I cannot recall a single case of a man who, free from the tyranny of drink, has been utterly destroyed by misfortune.

The hardest blows of fate seem powerless to slay the man whom the great hypnotist cannot subdue. And though I think intemperance is often as much a consequence as a cause, I truly believe that if drink could be utterly wiped out of the world tonight, humanity would awake in the morning with more than half its sorrows and sufferings gone.—Hals Caine's new novel, "Drink."

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIANS OF CHICAGO.

J. M. MCQUILKIN.

Chicago Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church enrolls thirteen churches, including Evanston and four other churches, outside of the city limits. All of these churches own property and some of them are splendidly equipped. Most of the thirteen churches are comparatively strong, the strongest being the First with a membership of practically 400, and a history dating back to 1860. All of the churches are making decided progress, both in growth of membership and better organization.

The Presbyterial net gain in membership last year was a little over six per cent, and by profession of faith our gain was about ten per cent.

There is an evangelistic missionary spirit in all our churches. While keeping before ourselves the responsibility for world-wide missions we also try to keep the fires of personal evangelism burning brightly, and in few of our churches does the quarterly communion ever pass without some being received by profession. Chicago Presbytery is unique in this day of easy degrees in that not a single pastor has his name burdened with the affixing of D. D. Chicago is the city where the man is more important than title.

The United Presbyterian Church still remains true to the Scriptural Psalmody. The Psalms are sung exclusively at every religious service, and most of our Chicago churches pride ourselves on our splendid singing under competent leadership.

Our Denomination is looking forward with interest to the year 1908 when we shall observe our semi-centennial anniversary in Pittsburg, the city of our church's birth.

The United Presbyterian Church was formed by the Union of the Reformed Presbyterian and Associate Reformed Presbyterian churches.

We have seen fifty years of splendid progress, and a record of missionary work of which we are justly proud, and an organization of benevolences that commends itself to all thoughtful persons as thoroughly business-like and that has brought our per capita of missionary contributions up to a standard second only to the Moravians. It is the financial aim of the committee in charge of our semi-centennial to raise an anniversary offering of $2,000,000, or an amount equal to the contributions of the Denomination of one year. This amount is to be devoted to the strengthening of the work of the various boards of the church.

THE DISCIPLES OF CHICAGO.

CHARLES CLAYTON MORRISON.

The Executive Board of the City Missionary Society at its last meeting adopted the program of raising a fund of $10,000 for evangelistic and church aid by the centennial year, 1900. They are soliciting the co-operation of the Business Men's Association of the denomination to aid in accomplishing this result. The centennial sentiment is a potent stimulus just at this time. It is planned to use the fund for expansion work through evangelism and for aiding local churches in building and in paying debts that now burden them.

The Christian Century Company was reorganized last month, Dr. H. L. Willett accepting the presidency in place of Rev. Charles A. Young, who has removed to California. The Century is now on a stronger foundation than ever and with its vigorous and progressive editorial policy will be more and more a factor in the denominational life.

In the death of Mrs. M. D. Raggio January 14 in Fort Worth, Texas, Chicago Disciples lose a conspicuous and influential Christian woman. She had been connected with the brotherhood in this city for fifty years and for the past eleven years was a member of the Monroe Street Church.

The departure of Dr. H. L. Willett to Palestine with a party of students under the auspices of the University of Chicago brings to mind the successful trip taken by another party of about twenty-five persons three years ago under the same leadership. The company sails the first week in February. During Dr. Willett's absence from the First Church of Disciples his pulpit will be filled by Rev. W. C. Hull of Tonawanda, New York.

Rev. Parker Stockdale has adopted a rather interesting plan for the Jackson Boulevard Church: that of having his evangelistic meeting in installments. The last week of each month until Easter has been set apart for this purpose. Rev. C. G. Kindred preached each evening the last week of January.

A REPRESENTATIVE CONFERENCE.

A gathering of much interest to various organizations was held January 21 under the auspices of the Hyde Park Guild of the R. E. A. The general subject for the day was "The Church and Religious Education." In the morning the regular Monday conferences of the Baptist, Congregational, Disciple and Presbyterian ministers met together and were addressed by representatives from seven denominations.

At the Sunday school session in the afternoon delegates from over a hundred Sunday schools of the South Side and suburbs were present.

In the evening an address of inspiration was given by Carter Helm Jones, of Kentucky, upon "Evangelism." Such strong men as Ernest D. Burton also addressed the conference. Prominent members from the Masons, Knights of Pythias and other fraternal orders spoke during the day. The problems of men, church services and social service received special attention.

THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY.

Mr. Bradley was born near Waynesville, Ill., in 1851 and received his education at the High School of Clinton, Illinois, and the Illinois State Normal University. He then took up the study of law in the Union College of Law, Chicago, graduated in 1888 and immediately entered into practice. He has grown steadily in his profession and has become widely known as an able counselor and as a trial lawyer and has been engaged in most important and complicated cases. He is now identified with the prosperous firm of Foster, Bradley & Stetson, Fort Dearborn Building. His love of his profession and his warm interest in young men led him about sixteen years ago to take a position as instructor in the Northwestern University Law School and he has constantly since been actively interested in legal education, being at the present time Professor of Contracts and Evidence, in the Chicago-Kent College of Law. His legal learning and mastery of legal principles are widely recognized, and he is a prime favorite with law students. He has refused two flattering offers to take a permanent chair in the law department of two State Universities, since he preferred to continue his practice in Chicago. He is an Associate Editor of The American Law Register and Review of Philadelphia, is actively identified with the Chicago Bar Association and is a member of the Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. The estimation in which Mr. Bradley is held by his brethren in the Bar Association is shown by the fact that among 100 candidates at the recent Bar Primaries for Municipal Judges, he stood third in the voting, receiving 1,300 out of 2,500 votes cast.

He is a courteous, Christian gentleman and his success in his profession and engrossment in its pursuit has never led him to forget the Christian service he owes to the church, and the community. He participated in the establishment of the Student's Young Men's Christian Association in the Professional Schools of the city, is Trustee of the Chicago Foundlings' Home, and has been for many years superintendent of the Third Presbyterian Sunday school, one of the very finest in the city. He is now President of the Cook County Sunday School Association. In all these positions he does not merely fill a place, but gives himself, heart and soul, to the work with which his name is associated.

THE MIDNIGHT MISSION.

BY ERNEST A. BELL.

The above organization was effected at the beginning of the year, chiefly through the efforts of Dr. John Balcom Shaw, to give suitable recognition and support to a successful midnight evangelistic work that has been maintained in the worst streets of Chicago since August, 1904.

During these three years fully one hundred thousand men and youths have heard God's message of warning, God's message of love, God's message of saving power, as they stood to listen or surged past our meetings in the streets where the red lights burn. Pastor M. P. Boynton of the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church preached the first sermon in this aggressive movement against satan's strongholds. Hundreds of workers—pastors, foreign missionaries on furlough, deaconesses, evangelists, business men and praying women—have taken part in this testimony against sin and for Christ our Savior, who cleanses from all sin.

Scores of repentant men and youths, and some women, have knelt at midnight in the dust of Custom House Place, Peoria street, Sangamon street, Dearborn street and Armour avenue. Keepers of criminal resorts calculated that our work cost them $250 an hour in loss of revenues. "If you Christian people keep coming," one of them said to me, "we've got to go."

A beautiful Jewess, an unrepentant "woman that was a sinner in the city," said: "You spoil our business." Within a month afterward her resort and fifty others were suppressed by the police on the imperative demand of fifty business firms in the vicinity of Randolph and Peoria streets.

The existence of a dozen churches on the brink of our scandalous "levees" is imperilled. If the Christian people "keep coming" with a virile evangelism, the "levees" have "got to go." If the churches are complacent over the proximity of their destroyers, we may read of others, as we have read of one recently that "because of the encroachments of vice" this church has become a mission—the historic Second Baptist Church at the corner of Monroe and Morgan streets.

To be a free man under the sky, to think thoughts higher than the stars and deeper than the seas, to stand before calamity unabashed, to have the shoulder to the burden and dare fate to make it heavier than we can bear, to be true in the midst of falsehood, brave amidst dangers, in a world of enticements keeping to the path, laughing at weariness, unhindered by persecution, undiverted from our course by calumny, with love and hope and faith as strong as life and immeasurably stronger than death; this by the revelation and grace of God is the high prerogative of humanity. —Leander Turney.

GIVERS ARE OF SEVEN KINDS.

First: Those who give spontaneously, and generously, but only to themselves—Auto-Givers, they might be called.

Second: Those who give thoughtlessly, without any real or high motive—Givers of the Occasion, as it were.

Third: Those who give as a sop to conscience and self-esteem in a species of atonement for the evil they do. Penitential Givers.

Fourth: Those who give as a matter of display, to win public applause for their generosity. Theatrical Givers.

Fifth: Those who give because others give, because they are expected to give and are ashamed not to give, and therefore give grudgingly. Conventional Givers.

Sixth: Those who give because they feel that they ought to give; who give through a sense of duty, and not through love. Moral Givers.

Seventh: Those who give in the spirit of Jesus; who give because they love their neighbor as themselves, and above all things desire to help him. Spiritual Givers.

To which kind do you belong?

"HE GIVETH HIS LOVED ONES SLEEP."

He sees when their footsteps falter, when their hearts grow weak and faint;
 He marks when their strength is failing, and listens to each complaint;
 He bids them rest for a season, for the pathway has grown too steep,
 And, folded in fair green pastures, He giveth his loved ones sleep.

Like weary and wornout children that sigh for the davlight's close,
 He knows that they oft are longing for home and its sweet repose,
 So He calls them in from their labor ere the shadows around them creep,
 And, silently watching o'er them, He giveth his loved ones sleep.

He giveth it—oh, so gently!—as a mother will hush to rest
 The babe that she softly pillows so tenderly on her breast:
 Forgotten are now the trials and sorrows that made them weep,
 For, with many a soothing promise, He giveth his loved ones sleep.

He giveth it! Friends the dearest can never this boon bestow,
 But He touches the drooping eyelids, and placid the features grow;
 Their foes may gather about them, and storms may round them sweep,
 But, guarding them safe from danger, He giveth his loved ones sleep.

All dread of the distant future, all fears that oppressed to-day,
 Like mists that clear in the sunlight, have noiselessly passed away;
 Nor call nor clamor can rouse them from slumber so pure and deep,
 For only his voice can reach them who giveth his loved ones sleep.

Weep not that her toils are over; weep not that her race is run!
 God grant we may rest as calmly when our work, like hers is done!
 Till then, we will yield with gladness our treasures to Him to keep,
 And rejoice in the sweet assurance; "He giveth his loved ones sleep."

GYPSY SMITH STORIES.

The "Gypsy" never tires of telling stories. You can't be with him long without striking something rich from his great experience. I read his book before he came and these are some samples that I found. There are scores more just as good.

The most memorable incident of my two weeks' mission at Old Bedford street, New York, was the conversion of a Roman Catholic priest. As I was speaking one night to the penitents at the communion-rail a man with a handsome, clean-shaven face looked up to me through the tears that were streaming down his face and said, "Do you know who I am?" I said, "No, sir." He answered, "I am a Roman Catholic priest. My church has failed to give me what I am hungry for." My theme that night had been "Jesus the Only Cure." The priest said to me, "I am seeking the Cure, the only Cure!" I remembered that I had seen in the audience the Rev. Father O'Connor, an ex-priest, well known in New York for his work among Catholics. I called him to my help, feeling that he would be better able to deal with this man than I could, and when I told him what I had just heard at the communion-rail, he said, "Yes, I know all about it. I brought him here." The priest had been ignorant of the plan of salvation, but there and then, renouncing his church and his old religion, he gave himself to Jesus Christ.

When I was holding meetings at Yonkers an amusing little incident occurred one night. Three ladies arose from their places near the pulpit and asked for prayer. They did not come into the inquiry room at the close of the meeting, and I stepped down to ask them the reason why. "Oh, no, we could not go there; we could not think of it," said one of them.

"Are you a Christian?" I asked.

"No, sir; I'm an Episcopalian."

MEETINGS IN A NEW YORK DRAWING ROOM.

I had been a guest of General Macalpine and Mrs. Macalpine at Sing Sing for a few weeks. Mrs. Macalpine suggested that I should hold drawing room meetings at Fifth avenue, New York. I gladly consented. These meetings were held in one of the largest mansions of the city. At the first meeting 175 ladies, including many of the exclusive 400, gathered at 11 o'clock to hear a Gospel address by a converted gypsy. Mrs. Rockefeller and her daughter, Mrs. Russel Sage, and many other well-known ladies were present. My first sermon was on "Repentance." I did not try to adapt myself in any way to the rank of my congregation. I only remembered that they were sinners needing a Savior. It was just an ordinary service, lasting for an hour and a quarter. At the close one of my congregation said to me, "If what you say is religion, I know nothing about it." Another lady, who was weeping bitterly, sought my counsel. "God has spoken to you," I said, "obey Him; follow the light."

A lady who had quite recently lost her husband and her child, thanked me at the close of one of the services, and said, "Remember that in every congregation, however small, there is always somebody with a broken heart."

HE HAD A SHARE IN THE BUSINESS.

At Indianapolis I met former President Harrison in his own home. I found him a courteous, high-toned gentleman, deeply interested in all work for the salvation of men and of the nation. While holding meetings there a throat specialist saw that I was having trouble with my throat, and he sent a message to me through the pastor, saying that he wanted to see me at his office next morning. The doctor in fifteen minutes gave me an amazing amount of information about my throat. He told me that I had pockets in the tonsils, which were in a chronic state of inflammation, and I was to come to him when the mission was over and he would set the matter right. In the meantime he attended almost every service of the mission. On the morning after the mission ended he performed an operation on the tonsils by means of an electric battery. I asked him for his bill, for I would gladly have paid whatever he had asked, provided, of course, it had been within my means. He was a great surgeon, and his fees were heavy. In reply to my question he looked at me quietly for a moment, and said, in deeply moved tones: "Sir, two of my boys have been converted during your mission. Will you give me your bill for that? Can I ever repay you for bringing those boys to Christ? How much is that going to be worth to me? I cannot preach, but if I can help you to preach with ease and comfort to yourself I have a share in your business."

SANKEY'S SUGGESTION.

When I was beginning my first mission in New York Mr. Sankey took me for a drive on the Saturday before I was to open the mission. I asked him if he remembered that when he was in England he went out one day to Effing Forest to see a gypsy encampment. He said he remembered it well. Then I said, "Do you remember that some little gypsy boys stood by the wheel of the trap in which you were driving, and that, leaning over, you put your hand on the head of one of them and said, 'The Lord make a preacher of you, my boy?'"

"Yes, I remember that, too."

"I am that boy."

Mr. Sankey's joy knew no bounds.

A little incident illustrating the famous singer's true kindness and solicitude on my behalf took place on this same drive. In those days I wore a frock coat of unimpeachable cut, I hope, and a white shirt and front of unblemished purity and snowy whiteness, I know, but no tie. The reason of this omission I cannot tell. I suppose I felt that I was dressed enough. Said Mr. Sankey to me all at once:

Brother Smith, why do you not wear a white tie?"

"I really do not know."

"Well, Brother Smith," said Mr. Sankey, "I guess you would do well to buy some tonight and wear one tomorrow."

Mr. Sankey was very anxious that my first impression upon the people should be as favorable as possible, and even a white tie would count for something.
